

DIGITAL MILLENNIUM COPYRIGHT ACT (DMCA)

Report alleged infringements to Easton Cable:

Copyright owners may report alleged infringements of their works by sending Easton Cable, a Service of Easton Utilities, authorized agent a notification of claimed infringement that satisfies the requirements of the DMCA. Upon Easton Cable receipt of a satisfactory notice of claimed infringement for these works, Easton Cable will notify the affected customer or user of the Service of the removal or disabling of access to the work(s).

Copyright owners may send Easton Cable a notification of claimed infringement to report alleged infringements of their works to:

Ted Book
Director of Cable and Communications
Easton Cable
201 N. Washington Street
Easton, MD 21601
Email: DMCA@goeaston.net

Copyright owners may use their own notification of claimed infringement form that satisfies the requirements of Section 512(c)(3) of the U.S. Copyright Act. Under the DMCA, anyone who knowingly makes misrepresentations regarding alleged copyright infringement may be liable to Easton Cable, the alleged infringer, and the affected copyright owner for any damages incurred in connection with the removal, blocking, or replacement of allegedly infringing material.

What can customers do if they receive a notification of alleged infringement?

If you receive a notification of alleged infringement as described above, and you believe in good faith that the allegedly infringing works have been removed or blocked by mistake or misidentification, then you may send a counter notification to Easton Cable. Upon Easton Cable's receipt of a counter notification that satisfies the requirements of DMCA, Easton Cable will provide a copy of the counter notification to the person who sent the original notification of claimed infringement and will follow the DMCA's procedures with respect to a received counter notification. In all events, you expressly agree that Easton Cable will not be a party to any disputes or lawsuits regarding alleged copyright infringement.

If a notification of claimed infringement has been filed against you, you can file a counter notification with Easton Cable's designated agent using the contact information shown above. All counter notifications must satisfy the requirements of Section 512(g)(3) of the U.S. Copyright Act.
